

New Zealand Association of Ruminant Nutritionists

Agenda for members meeting 5th & 6th May 2021

Kimihia Research Centre, Lincoln

Wednesday 5th May

From 9am	Coffee/tea and networking opportunity	All
10am	Welcome	Jakob Kleinmans
10.15am	Interpretation of Blood and liver trace mineral (copper, cobalt, iodine, manganese, selenium, zinc) results. How useful are they for nutritionists?	Richard Laven (Massey University)
11.15am	Sustainability of winter cropping and cropping techniques	Wayne Nicol
12pm	Lunch
1pm	MPI updates regarding winter cropping	Penny Timmer-Arends and Tony Paku (MPI)
1.45pm	Ketosis is the response, not the root cause	Ian Sawyer
2.30pm	Interpretation of Blood and liver macro mineral (calcium, phosphorous, magnesium, sodium, chloride) results. How useful are they for nutritionists?	Richard Laven (Massey University)
3.15pm	Afternoon tea
3.45pm	AGM	All
5.00pm	Close of meeting	Jakob Kleinmans

Evening Dinner locally (Lincoln) at own cost, for those interested.

Thursday 6th May

8.30am	Meet at Kimihia Research Centre and have a look at crops on site.	Charlotte Westwood
10am	Head out to for farm visit	Still TBC
12pm	Finish up at farm and head home.	